American Wives Prove Themselves Two Bank Presidents Refuse to Prothe Best in the World.

Thousands of Them Competing for "The Evening World" Prize.

Conditions of the Contest. A Gold Double Engle, "Evening World" prize for the best recipe for keeping a husband at home evenings.

Competitors must address their recipes to "The Faitor," giving their name and address, not for publication where not destred. The recipe must not be more than 200 words long, and must be written on one side of the paper only.

An Acrestic Recipe.

A good recipe for keeping a husband at night, Now try and see if "It will work right." Ever greet him with kisses and kindly smile, Valuatily strive to bear and forbear: Endeavor with games the hours to while, Rever try to add to his heavy care In providing a home and comforts for thee; Nor make him seel that the bear rooms must ever be Garnished only for company.

What's the use of his bome, if such be the case? Oh, sarely he's not to be blamed. I declare, Rosaning at night from place to place. If contort at home he can't find anywhere: Do give him what he has tolled so hard to share. Read to him, sing for him, first see he's well fed, Ensage him with flowers, and rubbons and isce, Call to his memory courting days fed. If then, he does not find home the cest place, Persist trying, 'til no more use to persist, End then, by letting him go where he list.

And also by letting him know that you are Thinking ever of that future day When meath the daisles he'll be laid away, And you will have a chance to try Tour recipe on some one more worthy.

The Cronin Conspirators' Witnesses Are

Weak Thus Far.

CHICAGO, NOV. 18,—The defense in the Cronin trial has made a bad start.

Saturday's resumons was trivial and the first.

Silken Cords, Stronger Than Steel.

First of all, remember that, alas; honeymons fly away all too quickly, the happy pair must settle down into the routice of married life. The true husband is not unreasonable or exacting. The hone and the market-place divide the life of every man. The husband must give to each its due. Therefore, make the home more attractive, more bleasurable than the ideas of the market-place. Meny a husband has been won by strong and persistent decotion.

Above air, do not risk the first little jar; it may be the little rift that by and by will cause you a world of brouble. The wife, by improving her own mental conditions and her material surroundings can plan all sort of pleasant surprises for keeping her husband home evenings.

Aliths can be done without the least show of authority or bower. The husband, I know, likes to think of the write rather as a guardian angled than as a ruling force, of home where the evoted and intelligent wife can always daily weave invisible s lien ites, which will had longer and which will be stronger than badde of steel.

Buckwheat With Cakes Royal Baking Powder:

THE most cherished of all the griddle cakes, and when properly made the most delicious. It has been against buckwheat cakes made in the old-fashioned way with yeast or risen over-eight that they were frequently heavy or sour; that disagreeable effects followed their eating. It has been found that these objections are completely overcome by mixing them with the Royal Baking Powder instead of yeast. Quickly made; no setting overnight; no materials spoiled. Risen with Royal Baking Powder they are most delicious—light, sweet, tender are most delicious—light sweet, tender are most delicious—lig they are most delicious—light, sweet, ten-der, assuredly wholesome, and may be eaten by any one without the slightest inconven-lence. Once tested from the following receipt, the buckwheat cake will be awarded a prominent place among our table delicacies. Racerer.—Take two cups of buckwheat flour, one cup of wheat flour, two tablespoons of Royal Baking Pooder, one half tenspoon of salt and sift dry, well and thoroughly together. Then mix with sweet milk ato a thin batter and bake at once on a hot griddle. Try them made this way. They will be a revelation. Royal Behing Doubles is received and the salt of the salt of

The next great fight—one that will excite equal interest with the Suillivan-hillrain fight—will be the fistic encounter between Suilivan and Peter Jackson. Jackson says he will make a match with the champion as soon as it can be arranged, and Sullivan has sensibly decided not to draw the color line as he at one time threatened to do, which would prevent his meeting Peter in the ring.

Parson Pavies, Jackson's manager, is sure he has a world-beater, and will do all he can to aid in bringing about the match, which will doubtless take piace at the California Athletic Club.

Since Jem Smith was knocked out so easily by Jackson, betting on the Jackson-Slavin fight has been heavily in favor of the Australian. The Captain says that his detectives and polecular have been instructed repeatedly to watch these place closely at d to make arrests for every infraction of the law.

He cromised the inspector to give his personal attention to the matter, and was instructed to make a thorough written report to be submitted to the Police Board.

MRS. WALLACK SULD BY A LAWYER.

He Will Try to Collect $2,300 for Services to the Dend Actor's Estate.

Friends of the late Lester Wallack are surprised by the suit of Lawyer John D. Townsend against the dead actor's widow for $2,300 alleged to be due for logal services to he self and Mis. Wallack asserts that her husband died in the belief that Mr. Townsend had been fully paid; that Mr. Townsend had been a friend and frequent guest of the family, and that she supposed rough of the was done in that capacity, and that the demand upon her is one that would cripple her fluancially to pay.

Ar. Townsend denies that the element of friedship had entered into his business transctions. He ways that he voluntarily agreed to 184 off 1890 from the bill, but had been unable to effect a settlement. ite matter will come up in the Surrogate's

CONSUMPTION.

I checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine. "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Eidsen, M. D., Middleton, Tenneasec.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, hat any seed me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Fectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard, Davies, Cours.

Parien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on hoard considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. Chandler, Junction, Va.
